Walking Tall: Spiritual Warrior Training System Walking Cane Fitness and Self Defense taught by SS Gurujodha Singh Khalsa

Learn practical, effective techniques via this online course created especially for Sikh Dharma Ministers. According to the creator of this course, Walking Tall “was developed to create spiritual warriors who foster peace in every environment in which they are present. If there is disharmony or violence of thought, word, or deed, it is the duty of the Spiritual Warrior to neutralize violence, protect and preserve life, and re-establish harmony, balance, and peace through their thought, word and action.

Such responsiveness requires training and skill. Walking Tall came out of the recognition of a need for Sikh Dharma Ministers to have a simple, yet dynamic interactive vehicle to train their minds, bodies, and spirits to be agents for peace in the coming age.” To register: Contact info@sdministry.org or visit www.sdministry.org/courses-events
